

Special Cadmus Publication on Human Security

TOPIC OUTLINE FOR CADMUS

- 1 Need for a New Paradigm for Human Security & Sustainable Development
- 2 Origins, Evolution and Future of the Human Security Concept
  - 2.1 History and evolution of the UN concept of human security
  - 2.2 Origin and Rationale for the 1995 UNDP Human Security Report
  - 2.3 The transition from territorial security to people's security
  - 2.4 Current and emerging threats to HS in the 21st Century
  - 2.5 Human Security for All Now
  - 2.6 Human Security for Future Generations
  - 2.7 Characteristics of the Human Security Approach
  - 2.8 Seven dimensions of Human Security
- 3 Human Security and the SDGs
  - 3.1 Human Security and Sustainability
  - 3.2 History of MDGs and their gradual evolution into SDGs.
  - 3.3 Significance of Human Security as a Person-centered Approach
  - 3.4 HS as an integrating concept for the SDGs and development policy
  - 3.5 How Human Security concept is instrumental for achieving SDGs
- 4 Human Security Strategies
  - 4.1 Protecting and promoting Human Security as a total ecology approach
  - 4.2 Strategies and best practices to protect and promote Human Security
- 5 Human Security, National Security and Common Security
  - 5.1 Nuclear Weapons and Human Security
  - 5.2 Militarization, Military spending & Human Security
  - 5.3 Human Security and the Imperative of Fulfillment of NPT Promises
  - 5.4 Rise of a multi-polar world or geopolitical shift
  - 5.5 Global North-South divide
- 6 Environmental Dimension of Human Security
  - 6.1 Environmental Sustainability and Human Security
  - 6.2 Increasing Focus on interdependence between people and the planet
  - 6.3 Energy and Human Security

6.4 The Right to a Safe, Sustainable Environment

7 Technological Innovation and Human Security

7.1 Contribution of Technological Innovation to Human Security – Past and Future

7.2 Technological threats to human security

7.3 AI, Cybersecurity & Human Security

7.4 Potential of Technological Innovation for addressing Human Security needs & threats

7.5 E Governance

8 Food Dimension of Human Security -- Food for All

8.1 The right to food

8.2 Global food security

9 Economic Dimension of Human Security

9.1 Eradicating Poverty for Human Security

9.2 Financial Inclusion through technological innovation

9.3 The Right to Employment

9.4 Inequality and Human Security

10 Education and Human Security

10.1 Technological innovations in education -- critical role of education in enhancing HS

10.2 Master Program in Human Security Protection and Promotion

11 Health Dimension of Human Security

11.1 Human Security post-COVID-19

11.2 Human Security and Mental Health

12 Personal security

12.1 Conflict prevention

12.2 Empowerment and being agents of change (agency)

12.3 Women's perspective on human security

12.4 Youth perspectives on human security

12.5 Human Security as an evolutionary trend in the human race

12.6 Systemic/Holistic concept of HS based on human ecology paradigm

13 Community security

13.1 Governance and Human Security

13.2 Role of Civil Society in Human Security

13.3 Role of the Media and Human Security

- 13.4 Culture of Peace
- 13.5 Conflict prevention
- 13.6 Migration and its impact on human security
- 13.7 The transition from Conflict-reduction and Conflict resolution to Conflict prevention based on human security as a birthright
- 13.8 The emerging science of Human Security protection and promotion, and the profession of Human Security Promoter.

14 Political security

- 14.1 Human Security, Peace, Law and Human Rights
- 14.2 Freedom and Human Security
- 14.3 Populism, democracy and Human Security
- 14.4 Role of multilateral institutions in fostering human security